MADAWASKA – Under the directorship of Music Instructor Martha Michaud, the Madawaska High School Marching Band was full of good cheer and great tunes this past Thursday when they made the rounds to share their spirit of the season with many businesses throughout Madawaska. Pictured here in the lobby of NorState FCU is some of the Prides' members playing some traditional Christmas music such as Silent Night, Rocking Around the Christmas Tree, We Wish You a Merry Christmas as well as many other favorites. They delighted the staff and members of the credit union with their talent. playing 8 to 10 songs. CEO David Rossignol thanked them, for spreading the Christmas cheer throughout our community, while everyone applauded.
