NorState FCU promotes Patricia Arthur-Holmes to Member Services Manager

MADAWASKA – NorState Federal Credit Union, a full service financial institution with offices in Madawaska, Van Buren, Ashland, Presque Isle, Eagle Lake and Fort Kent is pleased to announce that Patricia Holmes has been promoted to the management position of Member Services Manager. Pat was born in Perth, Ontario and attended St. Mary’s University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Her previous position with NorState FCU was as a Loan Officer at the Madawaska location. “Her knowledge and experience makes her a very suitable candidate towards our growth and progress, says NorState Federal Credit Union’s CEO, David Rossignol. Pat brings forward several years of experience, professionalism and knowledge of the financial world and focus on service makes her a great addition and provides the best accommodations for the membership.” Pat resides in Saint Agatha with her husband Fred. She has one stepson, Fred Jr. and a granddaughter, Kylie.
