

December 23, 2009

PRESIDENT’S AWARD – NorState FCU loan officer, Diane Theriault was recently awarded the 2009 President’s Award by CEO David Rossignol during an employee gathering. The President’s award recognizes an individual for outstanding service to NorState FCU and its members because they exemplify the level of professionalism and energy required to perform at the highest levels. David Rossignol comments, “Diane’s consistently positive attitude and solid work ethic serves as a model for others and is reflected every day in the quality and quantity of her work. She sets a very high standard for herself and continually strives to achieve it. She always goes above and beyond to insure that members receive the best possible service and her consistently positive, can-do, attitude is to be commended.”

-D. Cote photo

