NorState FCU takes US Small Business Administration award

On May 14th the U.S. Small Business Administration recognized NorState FCU as Maine's Top Performing Credit Union for the Fiscal Year 2009, and presented them with the District Director Award during the Maine 2010 Small Business Awards luncheon at Le Calumet Club in Augusta. SBA's District Governor, Maurice Dube, recognize NorState for their efforts in promoting SBA loans and chose them because they were the only credit union in Maine that was producing meaningful numbers and successful applicants. Other award recipients were: Small Business Person of the Year, Trapper R. Clark & Thomas Sturtevant of Alcom Inc., Winslow; Maine Veteran Small Business Champion of the Year Phillip A. Lander, Pres., Atlantic Defense Co. LLC, Westbrook; Maine Women in Business Champion of the Year, Ruth Cash-Smith, Women's Business Counselor, Women's Business Center at CEI, Machias and Maine Young Entrepreneur of the Year, Becky McKinnel, Creative Director/Founder, iBec Creative, Portland. Pictured are Congressman Mike Michaud, Jim Pelletier VP of Commercial/Business Services at NorState FCU, Jeanne A. Hulit, SBA New England Regional Administrator and Maurice L. Dube, SBA District Director. Also in attendance but not pictured was Danna Dubois, NorState Commercial Loan Analyst.
