Eagle Lake resident wins a Kindle!

EAGLE LAKE – Read all about it! Pictured in front of the Fort Kent NorState office with his new Kindle is William Lodner of Eagle Lake and NorState Insurance Specialist Cathy Dakin. Lodner entered for his chance to win the Kindle online at www.equinoxarostook.com, NorState FCU's insurance partner. The contest is ongoing throughout the summer months and there is no purchase required. Lodner said he and his wife were anxious to download books and he was surprised to hear he had won. Lodner stated it was easy to navigate the new Equinox website and was pleased with NorState's quick response to his insurance quote request.
